- b) Cancel the tender process; or
- c) Abandon the procurement of the Goods; or
- d) Issue another tender for identical or similar Goods.

XXXXXX

General Conditions of Contract (GCC)

1. NCPOR does not entitle to provide any GST exemption certificate. However, Custom Duty concession can be availed as per Govt. notification 51/96. Customs Duty Exemption Certificate will be provided by NCPOR (as applicable).

2. The Procuring Entity reserves its right to grant preferences to eligible Bidders under various Government Policies/ directives.

3. The Purchaser requires that the bidders, suppliers and contractors observe the highest standard of ethics during the procurement and execution of such contracts. In pursuit of this policy, the following are defined:

“Corrupt practice” means the offering, giving, receiving, or soliciting, directly or indirectly, of anything of value to influence the action of a public official in the procurement process or in contract execution:

“fraudulent practice” means a misrepresentation or omission of facts in order to influence a procurement process or the execution of contract;

“collusive practice” means a scheme or arrangement between two or more bidders, with or without the knowledge of purchaser, designed to establish bid prices at artificial, noncompetitive levels; and

“coercive practice: means harming or threatening to harm, directly or indirectly, persons or their property to influence their participation in the procurement process or affect the execution of contract;

The purchaser will reject a proposal for award if it determines that the Bidder recommended for award has, directly or through an agent, engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive or coercive practices in competing for the contract in question;

The decision of Director, NCPOR shall be final and binding.

4. Competitive and Independent Prices

a) The prices should be arrived at independently, without restricting competition, any consultation, communication, or agreement with any other bidder or competitor relating to:

- i) those prices; or
- ii) the intention to submit an offer; or
- iii) the methods or factors used to calculate the prices offered.

b) The prices should not be disclosed by the bidder, directly or indirectly, to any other bidder or competitor before bid opening or contract award unless otherwise required by law.

The Prices must be quoted strictly in Indian Rupees. The Financial Bid (Part II) should include the Price Schedule as per Annexure I, incorporating all cost-related components such as taxes and duties. No new technical details, not already covered in the Technical Bid, should be introduced in the Financial Bid.

5.Undue profiteering:

Controlled Price, if any or MRP: The price quoted by Bidder shall not be higher than the controlled price fixed by law for the Goods, if any, or where there is no controlled price, it shall not exceed the prices or contravene the norms for fixation of prices if any, laid down by Government or where the Government has fixed no such prices or norms, it shall not exceed the price appearing in any agreement, if any, relating to price regulation by any industry. In any case, save for special reasons stated in the bid, if any, the price charged shall not be higher than the Maximum Retail Price (MRP).

Undue profiteering: If the price quoted is higher than the controlled price in the sub-clause above, Bidder shall specifically mention this fact in his bid giving reasons for quoting a higher price(s). If he fails to do so or makes any misstatement, it shall be lawful for the Procuring Entity either to revise the price at any stage to bring it in conformity with the sub-clause (1) above or to terminate the contract for default as per the contract and avail all the remedies available therein in addition to other punitive actions for violation of Code of Integrity.

6.Post Tender Correspondence / Enquiries:

Any correspondence or inquiry after the opening of bids is discouraged and may lead to disqualification of the tender. Bidders are strictly advised against pursuing or canvassing the matter, directly or indirectly, with any officers of NCPOR, as such actions will also result in disqualification. However, bidders are permitted to submit written queries (i) regarding bid conditions or the bidding process prior to bid opening strictly within the clarification dates only (ii) to seek clarification on the reasons for rejection of their bid after the bids have been evaluated.

7.Clarifications from Bidders:

To facilitate the examination, evaluation, and comparison of bids, the Purchaser may request clarifications from all bidders or any individual bidder including a breakdown of unit rates and prices. All such requests and responses must be in writing. However, no changes to the bid price or its substance will be allowed or entertained, except to confirm the correction of arithmetic errors identified by the Tender Evaluation Committee of NCPOR in the course of scrutiny.

8.Samples: Sample shall be provided by the bidder during Technical evaluation, if required by NCPOR for quality checks. Such reference samples will be treated as part of the supplied quantity from the lot once approved to initiate bulk supply as per the contract. Consignee location for Material/Sample delivery shall be addressed to "Head (Procurement & Stores), National Centre for Polar and Ocean Research (NCPOR) Vasco da Gama, South Goa, Goa 403804"

9.On award of the contract, if the material is found not complying with given specification or low standards will be rejected.

10.Warranty/ Guarantee

If so stipulated in the Contract, the following warranty/ Guarantee clause shall apply:

1) The contractor hereby covenants that it is a condition of the contract that all Goods supplied to the Procuring Entity under this contract shall be free of all defects and faults arising from design, materials (except when the design adopted and/ or the material used are as per the Procuring Entity's specifications) or workmanship or from any act or omission of the contractor, that may develop under regular use of the supplied Goods under the conditions prevailing in India.

2) Obligations of the contractor under the warranty clause shall survive even though:

- a) The Goods may have been inspected, accepted, installed/ commissioned and paid for by the Procuring Entity.
- b) The contract is terminated for any reason whatsoever.
- 3) The Procuring Entity shall promptly notify in writing to the contractor, If during the period above, the said goods/ stores/ articles are discovered not to conform to the description and quality or have deteriorated, otherwise than by fair wear and tear (the decision of the Procuring Entity in that behalf being final and conclusive).
- 4) Upon receipt of such notice, the contractor shall, within 14 days (or within any other period, if stipulated in the contract), expeditiously repair or replace the defective Goods or parts thereof, free of cost, at the ultimate destination. The Contractor shall take over the replaced parts/ Goods after providing their replacements, and no claim shall lie on the Procuring Entity for such replaced parts/ Goods after that.
- 5) In case of any rectification of a defect or replacement of any defective Goods during the warranty period, the warranty for the rectified/ replaced Goods shall remain till the original warranty period.
- 6) If the contractor, having been notified, fails to rectify/ replace the defect(s) within 21 days (or within any other period, if stipulated in the contract), it shall amount to breach of Contract for default, and the Procuring Entity shall avail any or all remedial action(s) there under.

11. Goods Receipt and Inspection Report

If the received consignment successfully passes the quantity and quality checks, procuring Entity shall issue a Goods Receipt and Inspection Report (GRIR, or a similar voucher by any other name). The contractor may claim payment based on this document inter-alia other specified documents.

12. Consequence of Rejection: Upon the Goods being rejected by the Inspecting Officer or Interim Consignee or Consignee at a place other than the premises of the contractor, the Procuring Entity shall be at liberty to:

- a) Demand that such stores shall be removed by the contractor at his cost subject as hereinafter stipulated, within 21 days of the date of intimation of such rejection. Provided that the Inspecting Officer may call upon the contractor to remove dangerous, infected, or perishable stores within 48 hours of the receipt of such communication and the decision of the Inspecting Officer in this regard shall be final in all respects. Provided further that where the price or part thereof has been paid, the consignee is entitled without prejudice to his other rights to retain the rejected stores till the price paid for such stores is refunded by the contractor or dispose off such rejected Goods as per clause below save that such retention shall not in any circumstances be deemed to be acceptance of the stores or waiver of rejection thereon. The Contractor shall bear all cost of such replacement, including taxes and freight, if any, on replacing and replacing Goods without being entitled to any extra payment on that or any other account.
- b) All rejected Goods shall, in any event, and circumstances remain and always be at the contractor's risk immediately on such rejection. If the contractor does not remove such Goods within the periods aforementioned, the Procuring entity/inspecting officer, as the case may be as per the place of rejection, may remove the rejected Goods.

The Procuring Entity or Inspecting Officer may either return the same to the contractor at his risk and cost by such mode of transport as it may decide or dispose off such Goods at the contractor's risk and on his account and retain such portion of the proceeds from such disposal, as may be necessary to recover any expense incurred in connection with such disposals (or any price refundable as a consequence of such rejection). The Procuring Entity shall, in addition, be entitled to recover from the contractor ground rent/ demurrage charges on the rejected Goods after the expiry of the time-limit mentioned above.

c) Disposal of rejected goods in an aforesaid manner shall not exonerate contractor but still hold him liable to pay to the procuring entity, the dues as may arise as per the terms of contract besides the cost of goods if already paid to the contractor and any inspection charges. The Purchaser can take action as per contract terms if the contractor fails to pay the amount due to him.

d) Where under the contract the price payable is fixed F.O.R. dispatching station, the contractor shall, if the Goods are rejected at destination by the consignee, be liable, in addition to his other liabilities, including a refund of price recoverable in respect of the Goods so rejected, to reimburse to the Procuring Entity the freight and all other expenses incurred by it in this regard. The Contractor shall be allowed to take back rejected Goods only after such refunds are received by the Procuring Entity.

13. Inspections at the last moment

a) If the contract stipulates pre-dispatch inspection of the ordered Goods at Contractors premises, he shall put up the Goods for inspection well ahead of the delivery period to complete the inspection within that period.

b) In cases where only a portion of the Goods ordered is tendered for inspection at the last moments of the delivery period and also in cases where inspection is not completed in respect of the portion of the Goods tendered for inspection during the 12 delivery period, the inspector shall carry out the inspection and complete the formality beyond the contractual delivery period at the specific written request by and at the risk and expense of the contractor. The fact that the Goods have been inspected after the contractual delivery period shall not amount to keeping the contract alive, and this shall be without any prejudice to the legal rights and remedies available to the Procuring Entity under the terms & conditions of the contract.

c) If the Goods tendered for inspection during or at the last moments of the delivery period are not found acceptable after carrying out the inspection, the Procuring Entity is entitled to cancel the contract in respect of the same at the risk and expense of the contractor. If the Goods tendered for inspection are found acceptable, the Procuring Entity may grant an extension of the delivery period.

14. Consignee's right of Rejection of Inspected Goods

a) Goods accepted by the Procuring Entity and/or its inspector at the initial inspection and final inspection in terms of the contract shall in no way dilute the Procuring Entity's right to reject the same later if found deficient concerning 'Technical Specifications and Quality Assurance'.

b) Notwithstanding any approval which the Inspecting Officer may have given in respect of the Goods or any materials or other particulars or the work or workmanship involved in the performance of the contract (whether with or without any test carried out by the contractor or the Inspecting Officer or under the direction of the Inspecting Officer) and notwithstanding delivery of the Goods where so provided to the interim consignee, it shall be lawful for the consignee, on behalf of the Procuring Entity, to inspect, test and, if necessary, reject the Goods or any part, portion or consignment thereof, after the Goods' arrival at the final destination within a reasonable time after actual delivery thereof to him at the place of destination stipulated in the contract, if such Goods or part, portion or consignment thereof is not in all respects in conformity with the terms and conditions of the contract whether on account of any loss, deterioration or damage before dispatch or delivery or during transit or otherwise howsoever.

Note: Regarding materials pre-inspected at the firm's premises during manufacture or before delivery or dispatch, the consignee shall issue rejection advice within 90 days from the date of receipt.

15.Packing, Transportation and Receipt

a) The marking of the Goods must comply with the Goods of the laws relating to merchandise marks for the time being in force in India.

b) The packing for the Goods to be provided by the contractor should be strong and durable enough to withstand, without limitation, the entire journey during transit, including transshipment (if any), rough handling, open storage etc., without any damage, deterioration etc. If necessary, the size, weights, and volumes of the packing cases, the remoteness of the goods' final destination, and availability or otherwise of transport and handling facilities at all points during transit upto the final destination shall also be considered.

c) The quality of packing, the manner of marking within & outside the packages, and accompanying documentation shall strictly comply with the 'Technical Specification and Quality Assurance' and in the contract. If the packing requirements are amended due to any amendment to the contract, the contractor shall comply accordingly.

d) Unless otherwise provided in the contract, all containers (including packing cases, boxes, tins, drums, and wrappings) in which the contractor supplies with the Goods shall be considered non-returnable and their cost included in the contract price.

e) If the contract provides that the containers shall be returnable, they must be marked 'returnable'. Unless otherwise specified, the cost of reverse transportation shall be borne by the contractor.

f) If the contract provides that returnable containers shall be separately charged, they shall be invoiced by the contractor at a price stipulated in the contract. In such cases, the contractor shall give full credit for the invoiced amount if the containers are returned to the contractor. Return of containers shall be made within a reasonable time, and in the event of any dispute or difference arising as to whether the containers were so returned, the decision of the Procuring Entity thereon shall be final and binding. In his discretion, the Procuring Entity may award such compensations as may, in his opinion, be proper for any undue delay in returning the containers.

16.Settlement of Disputes: The decision of the Director, NCPOR shall be final and binding for any dispute whatsoever. All questions, disputes or differences whatsoever which may at any time arise between the parties, arising out of or in relation there to this contract work or otherwise shall be referred to the decision of the Sole Arbitrator, appointed by the Director, NCPOR and the decision of the said Arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the parties.

17. Force Majeure : If any time, during the continuance of this contract, the performance in whole or in part by either party under obligation as per this contract is prevented or delayed by reasons of any war or hostility, act of the public enemy, civil commotion, sabotage, fire, flood, explosion, epidemic, quarantine restrictions, strike, lockout or acts of God (hereinafter referred to "eventuality"), provided notice of happening of any such eventuality is given by either party to the other within 21 days of the date of occurrence thereof, neither party shall be reason of such an "eventuality" be entitled to terminate this contract nor shall either party have any claim or damages against the other in respect of such non-performance or delay in performance and deliveries under the contract. The contract shall be resumed as soon as practicable after such "eventuality" has come to an end or ceased to exist. In case of any dispute, the decision of Director, NCPOR, shall be final and conclusive, provided further that if the performance in whole or part of any obligation under this contract is prevented or delayed by reason of any such eventuality for a period exceeding 60 days, either party may at its option, terminate the contract. Provided also that if the contract is terminated under this clause the Purchaser shall be at liberty to take over from the Contractor at a price to be fixed by the Purchaser, which shall be final, all unused, undamaged and acceptable materials, bought out components and other stores in the course of manufacture which may be in the possession of the Contractor at the time of such termination, or such portion thereof as the Purchaser may deem fit except such material, as the Contractor may, with the concurrence of the Purchaser, elect to retain.

18. Jurisdiction: All questions, disputes or differences arising under out of or in connection with the Tender / Contract shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the court under whose jurisdiction the place from which the tender/work order/acceptance of tender is issued/is situated i.e. Goa.
